

LOTTO STRIKE JACKPOT POLICY

Effective from 4th of October 2015

---

In accordance with the Lotto Rules 2000, the New Zealand Lotteries Commission's (Lotto NZ's) policy in relation to Lotto Strike jackpots is detailed below:

1. Rule 35B (1) (a) (i) Lotto Strike Threshold amount

The total available Strike 4 prize pool after which no further additions may be made under rule 35C is eight hundred thousand dollars ($800,000).

2. Rule 35B (1) (a) (ii) Maximum number of Lotto Strike games

The maximum number of games after which no further additions to the Strike 4 prize pool may be made under rule 35C is nine (9).

3. Rule 35B (1) (b) Specified Lotto Strike date

Lotto NZ may nominate a specified date on which, if there is no division one winning selection in the drawing of the Lotto Strike game on that date, the total division one prize pool that may be won in that game must be added to the prize pool allocation for the next lowest prize division of that game with one or more winning selections. The policy in relation to these dates is detailed below:

- a. Dates may be set to coincide with special occasions e.g. holidays, national events etc.
- b. Dates may be set at the discretion of Lotto NZ.
- c. Dates will be approved by Lotto NZ's Chief Executive.

4. Rule 35B (3) Public notice

Lotto NZ will notify the public as soon as reasonably practicable, and ensuring reasonable national coverage, if it makes changes to the policies outlined above or nominates a specified date.
